

May 2007

You are invited to an Open House on Sunday, May 6th, from 2:00-5:00 p.m. to honor and celebrate Mrs. Mary Newhouse. Mrs. Newhouse is retiring after 21 years of teaching at MA where she has touched the lives of so many students with her love, faith and commitment. Mary is moving to Brookings, South Dakota in June with her new husband, Doug Malo. Please bring your memories and good wishes to the Bloomington Campus of Minnehaha Academy, 10150 Xerxes Ave. So., 55431. We look forward to seeing all of Mary's former students and their families at this event. For more information, please contact Carey Erkel, erkel-carey@MinnehahaAcademy.net.

NEWS RELEASE
MINNEHAHA ACADEMY

Minnehaha Academy announces ONLINE learning in Christian Ethics

With the goal of expanding its outreach and ministry, Minnehaha Academy is pleased to announce an ONLINE course in Christian Ethics. All Minnehaha alumni are welcome.

Participants will join in a discussion-based investigation of morality in the context of the Christian faith led by Dr. Jeffrey Crafton, teacher of Sacred Studies at Minnehaha.

The curriculum probes contemplative questions like "How should a Christian live with moral integrity?" and "How does a Christian make decisions about today's social and moral issues?"

This is an excellent summer study for adults who wish enroll to individually or as part of a small group.

The 8-week course begins June 18 at a special introductory price of $100. Registration deadline is June 11. The same study will be offered in the fall starting September 24.

Those interested can register by calling 612-728-7756 or go online: www.MinnehahaAcademy.net then lick on news and events.